And who are an Appointed Representative to Healthnet Services Ltd which is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority

And

Hereinafter referred to as the 'Introducer'

The firm hereby agrees to advise clients of the Introducer, in a manner consistent with the firm's Terms of Business Letter, which will be issued as appropriate to each client introduced to the firm by the Introducer.

The firm is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority registration 466073
The firm agrees to only transact medical insurance business with clients introduced to the firm.

It is hereby agreed that the firm shall share or distribute to the Introducer the agreed % as completed on our online questionnaire of the net initial commissions received by the firm for business transacted on behalf of the client of the Introducer. This amount will be paid on receipt of commissions.

Should any reclaim of commission take place by the provider with whom the Introducer's client has been placed, for whatever reason, this will either be offset against future commissions or be repaid to the firm within 14 days of demand. (This demand may be delivered by hand or will be assumed to have been delivered within 2 days of the despatch of a correctly addressed letter to the introducer's last known address.) In any event, the Introducer hereby fully indemnifies the firm or its Registered Individual in respect of its share of any commissions reclaim.

This agreement may be terminated at any time without penalty by either party giving notice in writing to the other. Such termination shall not affect the rights or obligations of either party in respect of business already completed by the firm or his Registered Individual, for clients introduced by the Introducer.

We agree to be bound by the above terms
